An ollicer from Nashville passed through this city yesterday, for Frankfort, with a requisition of Gov. Harris, of Tennessee, upon Gov Magollin, for one Ferdinand Pelix, who is detained in jail in this city, upon a charge of larceny, we believe. It is a remarkable fact that this requisition has been made by Gov. Harris upon the Governor of a loyal State of the Union under the laws of the United States, while Tennessee is in open rebellion against those laws. If the accusad has been guilty of a violation of a statute of Kentucky, we would be the last to shield him in punishment; but we are by no means sure that his offence is not one of a political character alone, and the Tennessoe authorities may have trumped up a charge of larceny for the purpose of gelting the accused safely in their custody. Tennessee is in a state of opnn rebellion against the Government-acknowledges no obligation to inter-State law-and her cleam upon the courtery of a loyal State is as cool as her recent pulitical course has been infamous. At all events, in this particular instance, there can be no danger in delay, and we think it altogether appropriate that our authorities chould satisfy themselves fully as to the real nature of the charge egainst the man Felix ere they yinld to the hasty demand of the secession Governor of Tennessee.

The line was returned from the heats, and shell and hot shot were thrown into the enemy ecump, setting fire to their tents and baggage wagons, and scattering the troops in various directions. The engagement lasted about an hour, but no dimage was done to our boats or their crews. Our hoats returned to Cairo, but succeeded in capturing eight prisoners and seizing forty head of mules and cattle. The Yankee fellowed the Tylor and Lexington a short distance, and then anchored in the river opposite the battery. One of the prisoners captured above the camp, and who was a scoul, slaves the number of Gen. Fillow's force to be 1,801, and that 1,000 were encamped near Columbus, Kv., at the Chalk Banks. The guncosts were fired into by infantry at both points, but their balls did no other damage than to enter the bulkheads of our steamers or riddle the awnings on their decks.

The Laxington, in the engagement with the Yankee, fired a chell at the latter, striking her obliquely on the wheel house, but doing no injury. Another shell expluded near her forecastle, and it is believed that loss of life occurred. It is believed that Pillow's forces are being reinforced. The gunboats Tylor.
